

Utility Patent Application – Specification Section

Title of Invention:

Patent submitted by Mark Lumpkin , a citizen of the United States of America, residing in the state of Missouri. The invention is titled Photocheck.

Cross-Reference to Related Applications:

Not Applicable

Statement Regarding Federally Sponsored Research or Development:

Not Applicable

Reference to a Microfiche Appendix:

Not Applicable

Background of the Invention:

This invention would be classified under the field of Photo Identification. This invention is designed to identify consumers via personal bank checks. It will eliminate bank check fraud. No problems are associated with this invention.

Brief Summary of the Invention:

Photocheck is a photo identification personal bank check that is designed to be used by Consumers wherever personal checks are accepted. It will help to eliminate identity theft Caused by personal checks stolen and used fraudulently. Each personal bank check given to account holders via a financial institution, will have the corresponding photo of the account holder in the upper left hand corner of the check.

Brief Description of the Several Views of the Drawing:

The description of the drawings are as follows:

1. Photo
2. Personal Bank Check
3. Photo of personal bank check

Detailed Description of the Invention:

The Photocheck contains a 1in x 3/4in color photo located in the upper left hand corner of the check next to the consumers name and address information.